

STATE LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT REFERENCE MAP: State House District 39 (Alaska)

This map illustrates the boundaries of State House District 39, which is located in the southeastern part of Alaska. The district is bounded by the Canadian border to the north and east, and the Valdez-Cordova Road to the south. Key features include:

- Geographical Features: The district covers a large area of land, including the Chisana River and several lakes. It is situated between the Valdez-Cordova Road and the Canadian border.
- Major Roads: The Valdez-Cordova Road (AK-261) runs along the southern boundary of the district. Other roads shown include the Northway Road and the Chicken Road.
- Settlements and Landmarks: Several locations are marked, including Eagle Village, Chicken, Northway, and Chisana. The map also shows the location of the Alcan Border and the Northway Junction.
- Administrative Boundaries: The map identifies the boundaries of the Doyon ANRC 20010, the Ahtna ANRC 00590, and the Chugach ANRC 14410. It also shows the location of the SLDL 35, SLDL 39, and SLDL 34.
- Scale and Orientation: The map includes a scale bar indicating distances in miles (0 to 100) and a north arrow.

Where international, state, county, and/or MCD boundaries coincide, the map shows the boundary symbol for only the highest-ranking of these boundaries.

1 MCD boundaries are shown in the following states in which some or all MCDs function as general purpose governments: Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, and Wisconsin. Note that Illinois and Nebraska have some counties covered by nongovernmental precincts and Missouri has most counties covered by nongovernmental townships.)
